To help you get the most from the Library, we have a number of information sessions taking place in the Library. Sessions last no more than 30 minutes. To attend these sessions, check the LIST banner in the foyer. Make your way to the allocated room.

Better Assignments with online tools
Discover software you can use to help you plan your assignments, track your research, keep up with all your readings and proofread your written work. Find out more in this session and start submitting more polished assignments.

Career Options with a Degree
Where do I start? What’s out there for me?

Copy & Print Service (C&P)
A demonstration on using the University’s copying, printing and scanning centralized service.

CV—at your CV work for you
CV structure, layout, what employers want.

Essay Writing Skills
Session 1: The A-Z of Essay Writing; Session 2: Brainstorming; Session 3: Making an Argument—The Paragraph; Session 4: Grammar & Sentence; Session 5: Reading—Research Your Title; Session 6: TOP 10 errors in Essay Writing; Session 7: Conclusions and Introductions; Session 8: Bibliographies and Referencing.

Excelling at job interviews
The Company, You, Questions, Body Language.

Finding items on your Reading List
Using LibrarySearch, this session will cover how to find books and journal articles.

Free apps for students
Find out about the range of freely available apps that you can use to keep on top of your studies and student life.

Introduction to Moodle
In this session, you will be introduced to the virtual learning environment, Moodle. You will learn how to access Moodle resources, read and respond to forum posts and upload assignments in Moodle. This session is facilitated by Moodle Support.

Introduction to Turnitin
Turnitin is plagiarism prevention software. This session will demonstrate how to self-check your work in Turnitin to help avoid plagiarism. We will also demonstrate how to submit Turnitin assignments in Moodle. This session is facilitated by Moodle Support.

Lightning Typing
Drop in to get started with an online typing course and save time on web searches, writing assignments and emails with faster touch typing.

Mindfulness on the Go
A skilled based session focusing on practical mindfulness techniques that can help in daily life.

New Students! What you need to know about the Library
Welcome to University! There’s a lot to find out about—how it all works at University, who does what, what everything costs and how can the library help? We’ll tell you lots about Maynooth University and our library in an easy-to-understand session.

Russell Library Tour
Join us for a tour of the Russell Library and discover some of the superb collections of early-printed books, manuscripts and archives which make this library a leading resource for academic research and teaching. Meet at the Russell Library. Ask at the Admission Desk for directions.

Setting In - Coping with College Life
An opportunity to talk about the transition to or back to college and discuss some ideas and strategies that can help.

Successful Searching: is it all on Google?
How do you find high-quality, reliable information that will help you in your studies? Knowing how to search successfully is essential to finding the best information at the right time and getting to know good results—join us to find out all about it.

Tackling Anxiety
Strategies and techniques for dealing with everyday anxieties.

Wireless Clinic
Gain information on the various wireless services available. Get access to tips on how to enable clients to connect their mobile devices to the campus wireless networks.

Copy & Print Service (C&P)
A demonstration on using the University’s copying, printing and scanning centralized service.

‘Fake News’: don’t get fooled!
In a fast-changing online world, how can you stay one step ahead of ‘fake news’ and unreliable information? Questioning what you see, read or hear, especially on social media, helps you think critically and make better decisions—helping you with your research and study. This session will show you how.

Procrastination—putting things off
Session will focus on reasons why we procrastinate and strategies for managing this more effectively.

Referencing & plagiarism: the bottom line for you
Find out all you need to know about referencing, why it’s essential, how it helps your work and impacts your results.

Skills for better assignments
How do you produce a high-quality essay, project or thesis within deadline? Come to this practical, activity-based session and we’ll show you the skills you need to plan your work, search effectively and pull it all together to achieve a high-quality finish.

Using EndNote & other referencing tools
Learn how to collect your references online, organise your sources using online tools, prepare your bibliography and SAVE TIME! This is a dynamic session with an expert—come with all your questions!